BIOGRAPHY

Stacey Hatton RGN, ADNS, BA (Hons), MSc has been working in healthcare for the past eleven years, eight of which have been as a registered nurse.

She worked as an Emergency Department nurse prior to holding leadership positions in the Patient Safety and Quality Improvement team. She transitioned to digital project teams in three large NHS trusts.

Her decision to attain an MSc in health informatics came from insight into the depth of influence that technology has on patient care, safety, management, operational workflow and interpersonal relationships in healthcare.

Stacey has been newly appointed as the Chief Nursing Information Officer of an acute NHS Trust. She aims to pioneer transformational changes by driving the digital strategy for the benefit of patients and staff trust-wide. Stacey's role as Lead Nurse for Genome compliments her career in the NHS, bringing mutual gains in digital innovation and dynamic advancement of new concepts.
