

DR CATHERINE MILLINGTON-SANDERS

GP

ROYAL COLLEGE OF GENERAL PRACTITIONERS

MARIE CURIE NATIONAL END OF LIFE CARE CLINICAL CHAMPION

Dr Catherine Millington-Sanders is RCGP & Marie Curie National End of Life Care Clinical Champion and clinically led the development of the RCGP & Marie Curie Daffodil Standards – UK General Practice Standards for Advanced Serious Illness and End of Life Care. Catherine is Clinical Lead for the Social Enterprise Difficult Conversations. She is a practicing GP, clinical commissioner and educationalist with 7 years experience as a specialty doctor in palliative medicine. Catherine co-chairs the RCGP & Partners EOLC Think Tank and supports Public Health approach to developing Compassionate Communities, actively implementing the Compassionate City Charter and facilitating the development of compassionate neighbourhoods and supportive networks within our communities.